

DIPARTIMENTO DI SOCIOLOGIA
E DIRITTO DELL'ECONOMIA

Multidimensional housing deprivation

Local dynamics of inequality, policies and challenges for the future

13-14 October 2021
//
Conference Program

Contact and Info
housing2021bologna@gmail.com
Registration and link to the online conference:
<https://www.micadoproject.eu/conference/>

micado
migrant integration cockpits & dashboards

AIS
SOCIOLOGIA
DEL TERRITORIO

13/10

14.30 - Welcome and Opening Address

Claudia Golino (Director of the Department of Sociology and Business Law, University of Bologna)

Jörg Rainer Noennig (Principal Investigator H2020 MICADO Project - HafenCity Universität Hamburg)

Giampaolo Nuvolati (Coordinator National Scientific Council of Territorial Sociologists-AIS)

Giovanni Pieretti (Director of the Centro studi sui problemi della città e del territorio - CEPICIT)

Maurizio Bergamaschi (Department of Sociology and Business Law, University of Bologna)

15.30 - Lectio magistralis

Thomas Maloutas (Harokopio University, Department of Geography): A research agenda for micro-segregation

16.00-16.15 // Break

16.15-18.00 // Panel 1: Local Models and processes of ethnic residential segregation

(Organizers: Maria Grazia Montesano & Luca Daconto)

• Erasmus Sossich: Hospitality and segregation in Turin. An ethnographic perspective on migration, hospitality and urban conflicts

• Sara Giunti, Luca Bottini, Simone Caiello, Stefano Taroni: Different models of localisation for refugees' and asylum seekers' reception structures: the case of the Italian Dispersion Policy

• Francesca Colella, Giovanna Gianturco, Mariella Nocenzi: Questione abitativa e migranti. Il ruolo delle donne nei movimenti sociali per il diritto alla casa tra stereotipi e attivismo sociale

• Silvia Mugnano, Alessandra Terenzi: Resilience and adaptation: Social Housing and mixité in post-Covid Milan

• Luca Daconto, Maria Grazia Montesano: The residential dynamics of foreign populations at the metropolitan scale. The cases of Bologna and Milan (2001-2020)

14/10

9.30-12.00 // Panel 2: Public housing policies and practices

(Organizers: Manuela Maggio & Alice Lomonaco)

• Uliano Conti: The Milan case study between gentrification, identity and future

• Davide Olori, Vando Borghi: Social housing and the public-private system: research questions from the case of Emilia Romagna

• Francesco Gastaldi, Federico Camerin: Genoa's «Biscione» from the 1960s to today. From stigmatised neighbourhood to «neighbourhood where it is nice to live»

• Igor Costarelli, Silvia Mugnano, Aurora Cortazzo: Assessing assisted tenancy as a tool to promote affordability in the Italian private rental market

• Karen Urso: Widespread Hospitality and social inclusion of migrants: an opportunity to regenerate rural areas

• Liliana Padovani, Alice Selene Boni: Towards new lines of public action in housing

• Beatrice Acquaviva, Gloria Bonora, Gianluigi Chiaro: Public housing policies and the secondary aid network of Caritas Diocesana in Bologna

12.00-12.15 // Break

12.15- 13.30 Panel 3 // Housing and new technologies

(Organizers: Carolina Mudan Marelli & Teresa Carlone)

• Giulia M. Foresti, Anna Lauricella, Dimitris Demertzis, Alessandro Pollini: Beyond emergency housing and social exclusion. the integration of territorial actions and good practices into its tools: Greece and Italy

• Sophie Kenneally, Nicoletta Gallori, Francesca Calamini: Falling through the Net: Internet-Enabled Services for Former Unaccompanied Foreign Minors

• Carolina Mudan Marelli, Teresa Carlone: Limits and opportunities of ICT in access to the housing market for the migrant population. Considerations starting from the Bologna case in the MICADO project.

13.30-14.30 // Lunch Break

14.30-16.00 // Short reports from sessions & Farewell Greetings